

Richard Walters - We Have Your Head

Tom: A

m

Oh, me, I'm already torn

And you're kicking me

Ice melts the cracks to my brains

And you knew and now

Mountain way's calling your name

Everybody else is calling

You, you

Me, oh, hold me, oh

And you knew and the Ice breaks the cracks to my head

And we're through and the

Mountain way's calling your name

Everybody else is calling

You, you,

Me, oh, hold me, oh

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh

Who let you in, who let you in?

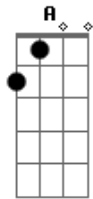

There's a hole in my head

Who let you in, who let you in?

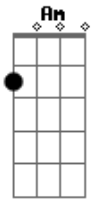

There's a hole in my head

Head, head, head
