

Ricky Nelson - My Old Flame

```
Tom: G
                                                          As my old flam
                                                          Bridge:
  G Gdim Bm7
                                                                                Am7
                                                                                         Dbm7
                                                         Bb
My old flame
                                                          I've met so many who had fascinatin' ways,
E7 Am
              Am7
                                                            G7
                                                                                  C7
                                                          A fascinatin' gaze in their eyes
I can't even think of his name
  G
         C7 F7 Bb
                                     Gdim
                                                                       D7 G
But it's funny, now and then, how my thoughts go flashing back Some who took me up to the skies again

A7

Dbm7
                                                           Α7
D A7 Am7 D7 D7/13-
                                                          But their attempts at love were only imitations of
To my old flame
                                                          G Gdim Bm7
G Gdim Bm7
                                                         My old flame
                                                                                  F7
My old flame
                                                           E7 Am
                                                                      Am7
                                                          I can't even think of his name
 E7 Am
              Am7
                        F7 D7
My new lovers all seem so tame
                                                             G
                                                                       C7 F7 Bb
  G C7 F7 Bb
                                                          But I'll never be the same until I discover what became
For I haven't met a gent so magnificent or elegant
                                                          Am Dbm7
                                                                   G
  D7 A7 F7
                                                         Of my old flame
```

Acordes

Gdim