

Ringo Starr - Beaucoups Of Blues

tom:

Intro: E B G

[Primeira Parte]

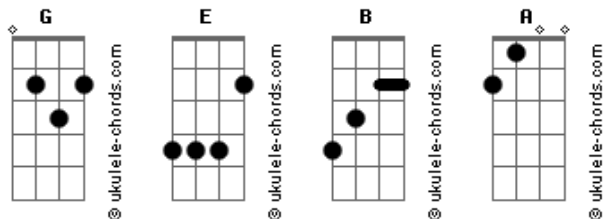

I left louisian, I had me big plans
To go out and take me all over this land
To see me the world, I left my sweet girl
And gave it a whirl but now here I stand

[Refrão]

Along side the road with holes in my soul and my shoes
And beaucoups of blues
Oh, sweet magnolia
Breath carried over the marsh by a breeze from the gulf
I'm coming home, (coming home)
I've had me enough

[Ponte] B E A E B

[Segunda Parte]

(E B E)
(B A B)

Oh, where are the things I saw in my dreams?
Where's the happy that freedom should bring?
I see me today and know yesterday
That I threw away my most precious things

[Refrão]

I see me a man who's lonely, wants only to lose
Beaucoups of blues

Oh, sweet magnolia
Breath carried over the marsh by a breeze from the gulf
I'm coming home, (coming home)
I've had me enough
I'm coming home, (coming home)
I've had me enough
