Ringo Starr - Have You Seen My Baby? (Hold On)

She's always been unfaithful to me
                              tom:
                                                                     G
                                                                                               C
                                                                      She ain't never been no good

But she always do
                                                                     G She say, "I'll talk to strangers if I want to
                  C
Have you seen my baby
                                                                     G
'Cause I'm a stranger, too"
         G
On the avenue?
G
You know she's driving me crazy
