When you wrote me that letter

I wish that we were together

So I could say that everything's alright

Gbm

You told me you didn't matter

A

That your hope had been shattered

D

You said you feel like giving up the fight

Bm

I know it feels like more than you can take

Bm

But you're strong enough, believe me when I say

I will never leave you

You can always be you

'Cause even when you feel alone no you ain't by yourself

I'm a shoulder you can cry on

And I'm someone to rely on

'Cause even when you feel alone you won't need no one else

So don't hurt yourself

Gbm

I know at home it ain't perfect

The battle scars they ain't worth it

But I don't wanna read between the lines

Gbm

I know at times it can burn you

The ones who care they deserve you

Just stick around there will be better times

Bm

I know it feels like more than you can take

Bm

But you're strong enough, believe me when I say

I will never leave you

You can always be you

'Cause even when you feel alone no you ain't by yourself

I'm a shoulder you can cry on

And I'm someone to rely on

'Cause even when you feel alone you won't need no one else

So don't hurt yourself

We are gonna give you all the love that you could need

Just promise me that you will never leave

I will never leave you

You can always be you

'Cause even when you feel alone no you ain't by yourself

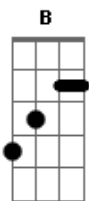

I'm a shoulder you can cry on

And I'm someone to rely on

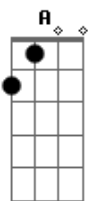

'Cause even when you feel alone you won't need no one else

So don't hurt yourself
