

Rob Thomas - Streetcorner Symphony

Tom: Db
Intro:

Ab
It's morning
Cm
I wake up
Gb Db
The taste of summer sweetness on my mind
Ab
It's a clear day
Cm
In this city
Gb
Let's go dance under the street lights
Db
All the people in this world
Bbm
Let's come together

More than ever
Db
I can feel it

Can you feel it
Ab
Come on over
Cm
Down to the corner
Gb Db
My sisters and my brothers of every different color
Ab Cm
Can't you feel that sunshine telling you to hold tight
Gb
Things will be alright
Db
Try to find a better life
Ab
Come on over
Cm

Down to the corner
Gb Db
My sisters and my brothers there for one another want you
Ab
Come on over
Cm Gb Db
Man I know you wanna let yourself go
Ab
Some people
Cm
It's a pity
Gb
They go all their lives and never know
Db
How to love or to let love go
Ab
But it's alright now
Cm
We'll make it through this somehow
Gb
And we'll paint the perfect picture
Db Bbm
All the colors of this world will run together more than ever
Db
I can feel it Can you feel it

back to Chorus

Db Ab Bbm
We may never find our reason to shine
Db Ab Bbm
But here and now this is our time
Db Ab Bbm
And I may never find the meaning of life
Db Ab Bbm
But for this moment I am fine
Db
So
