

Robyn - Honey

tom:

Bm

A No, you're not gonna get what you need G

Bm Baby, I have what you want

A Come get your honey

G No, you're not gonna get what you need

Bm But baby, I have what you want

A Come get your honey

I got your honey, baby

G Every colour and every taste

Every breath that whispers your name

Bm It's like emeralds on the pavement

A Every colour and every taste

Every breath that whispers your name

It's like emeralds on the pavement

I got your honey, baby

G At the heart of some kind of flower

Bm Stuck in glitter, strands of saliva

A Won't you get me right where the hurt is?

A At the heart of some kind of flower

G And the waves come in and they're golden

Bm But down in the deep the honey is sweeter A

(Ooh, it is sweeter, baby)

Bm But down in the deep the current is stronger A
