

Roger Waters - Wait For Her

Tom: G

Intro: G C G

With a glass inlaid with gemstones

On a pool around the evening

Among the perfumed roses

Wait for her

With the patience of a packhorse

Loaded for the mountains

Like a stoic, noble prince

Wait for her

With seven pillows laid out on the stair

The scent of womens' incense fills the air

Be calm, and wait for her

And do not flush the sparrows

That are nesting in her braids

All along the barricades

Wait for her

Em And if she comes soon

Wait for her

Em And if she comes late

Wait

G Let her be still

As a summer afternoon

A garden in full bloom

G Let her breathe in the air

That is foreign to her heart

C Let her lips part

Wait for her

G Take her to the balcony

See the moon soaked in milk

Hear the rustle of her silk

Wait for her

G Don't let your eyes alight upon

The twin doves of her breast

C Lest they take flight

Wait for her

Wait for her

Em And if she comes soon

Wait for her

Em And if she comes late

Wait, wait
(break)

G Serve her water before wine

Do not touch her hand

C Let your fingertips rest at her command

G Speak softly as a flute would

To a fearful violin

Breathe out, breathe in

Em C G G G G

G And as the echo fades

From that final fusillade

C Remember the promises you made
