Old recliners in the yard
Am C
Kicking heels up to her favorite song
Em D
All the boys were playing cards
Am C
Always felt like something's missing
Em D
Ever since she hung the lights
Am C
Now it's one-night stands and overthinking
Em D
Just spending my nights
Am C G D
Thinking 'bout you, you in the moment
Am C G D
Thinking 'bout you, you in the moment
Am C
I remember when the nights were long
Em D
Diving headfirst off the dock
Am C
Now I wonder where the days have gone
Em D
While I lay in bed and rot
Am C
The Sun was falling on the water
Em D
She was staring out to sea
Am C

I said: I'm sure you'll find somebody stronger
Em G D
And I'm sure I'll always be
Thinking 'bout you, you in the moment
Am C G D
Thinking 'bout you, you in the moment
Am C G D
Thinking 'bout you, you in the moment
Am C G D
Thinking 'bout you, you in the moment
Am C G D
You get by 9 to 5 in the city
G D
Making rent with no money to spare
Do you think 'bout the nights sharing whitney
Am C
With the end of July in the air?
G D
Now you cry all night till the morning
Am C
In the arms of someone you settled for
G D
Couldn't let it go if I forced it
Am C
What do I do, oh, what do I do?
Am C G D
It's always been you, you in the moment
Am C G D
Thinking 'bout you, you in the moment
Am C G D
Thinking 'bout you, you in the moment
