

Tom: Db

Ron Pope - Fireflies

```
Intro: 2x: Db Fm
                                                               Fh
                                                                          Bbm
                                                               I notice a chill in the air,
                                       Fm
When the streetlights come on and the fireflies flicker,
                                                               Eb
                                                                September is creeping up fast.
I am walking her home making plans.
       Dh
With her shoes in her hands, I am watching her dance, Like autumn turns leaves, winter will breathe, cold on our
                                                                necks,
As the hem of her dress gently kisses the grass.
                                                               Snow in our paths.
Db Fm
                                                                                              Ah
                                                                            Db
                                                               Wherever she goes, all that I know about us is that beautiful
         Bb
It suddenly rains on us, last. Thats why fireflies flash
              Eb
                                Gb
She is laughing and turns up her hands.
                                                               Db Fm
Like autumn turns leaves, winter will breathe, cold on our Innocence didn't mean we're immune to these things,
necks,
Snow in our paths.
                                                               Let's blame the passage of time
Wherever she goes, all that I know about us is that beautiful
                                                               Love and loss, truth it costs more than I can spare right now.
things never
                                                                                      Ah
                                                               Maybe it's simpler to lie.
last. Thats why fireflies flash
Db Fm x2
                                                                Like autumn turns leaves, winter will breathe, cold on our necks.
When this summertime ends, we will not part as friends,
                                                                Snow in our paths.
                                                                                              Ab
                                                               Wherever she goes, all that I know about us is that beautiful Things were promised in blood, we have sinned.
                                                               things never
           Dh
Now there's tears in her eyes as she's screaming goodbyes
                                                               Gh
                                                                last. Thats why fireflies flash
I run 'long side the car turning numb to the sound.
                                                               Db Fm To End
                                                               Learn to play "Ron Pope" with online video lessons
```

Db Fm

Acordes

