

Ronnie Milsap - Stranger In My House

Tom: G
Intro: Dm C G

There's a silence here between us
G I've never heard before
Dm And I can't find the love
C In her eyes anymore
G There're some changes going on
Dm I'm beginning to understand
G When I'm holding her
A I swear I feel the presence of another man

There's a stranger in my house
A Somebody's here that I can't see
Dm Stranger in my house
Gm Somebody here trying to take her away from
Dm C G Me

She sits staring out the window
G A million miles away
Dm And when I ask if she's alright
C She never has too much to say
G Is it somebody we both know
Dm Somebody she just met
Gm Is she loving him in her mind
A While she's lying here in my bed

There's a stranger in my house
A Somebody here that I can't see
Dm Stranger in my house
Gm Somebody here trying to take her away from
Dm C G Me

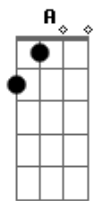

(Dm C G)
(Dm C G)
(Dm C G)

Bb
Suspensions lead to questions
Dm and questions to alibis
Bb Is it just my imagination
A Or has her love turned into lies
