But what I can do?
             B7
                                       E7
  I'll never fall in love again!
                 \mathsf{Am}
 Every time that I wanna say goodbye
                                            B7
You come back to me in my dreams,
                                                     В7
That's realized in all my body part at all
                            Dbm Dbm7
In all my body part at all,
        B7
                                          Dbm Gbm
  I feel this is love, my friend!
                                           Am E
         В7
  I feel this is love, my friend!
