

Roxette - Cry

Tom: D

Living here without you is not an easy way of life.
 I spend my time without you, I try to make it all worthwhile.
 Standing in a rainfall coming down from the sky.

Why should I cry over you?
 Why should I cry cry cry over you?

I keep on thinking about you. I've got no private pride to hide.
 I've built my world around you like a call without reply.
 My love has lost direction, she's got the sun in her eyes.

Why should I cry...

- living without you.
 Feeling the sweet sweet smell of love in the air (I can feel it...)
 - living without you.
 Kissing the face that I see everywhere
 but I'm living without you, I'm living without.
 Cry, cry, cry, over you...
