To every love that's lost there is tragedy
     D
I saved a vision of you in my head

Watched a new universe being born, raised and bred
                   G
In the calm of my bed

                       Dm     Bb                C
Some might say it's over now  I don't believe them
          Dm        Bb                C
If I only got to you  I'd prove I'm right

              Em              C
Only when I dream  I hear you, I'm near you
Am            B
I hold you close to me

I came lookin' for more self esteem
All I found was your voice

On the answering machine Simple and clean
