

Roxette - Small Talk

Tom: C

It's not the way his eyes persuade you to stay the night.

It's not the chapters he reads when you're feeling low down.

It's not the touch of his skin when you kiss him goodnight.

It's not the money he spends when you want to buy a daydream.

and not that miracle smile that makes the sky bright.

It's not the way his hands behave when you turn out the light.

{Chorus 1}:

It's the small small small talk that makes it all happen.

Small small small talk that makes you want to fly, yes it does.

It's not the way he believes in you like a religeon.

It's not the thrill that you get when he's holding you tight.

It's not the way his eyes persuade you to stay the night.

{Chorus 2}:

It's the small small small talk that makes it all happen. (just like that)

Small small small talk that makes you feel like flying, yes it does.

Information heart and soul

A whisper, a word

Confessions that have to be heard.

Small small talk.

{Solo}:

(Tocar essa parte = {Chorus 2})

C'mon now, c'mon now, c'mon

You seem to rock so heavenly

C'mon now, c'mon now, c'mon

You seem to talk so heavenly

{Chorus 2} to fade.
