

Roy Orbison - Sweet Mama Blue

Tom: A
Intro: A Gbm Bm E A

I know a Bm place in New E Orleans.
They call A the Castle of Dbm Kings and Gbm Queens.
Where an old sweet black woman sings.
And plays piano like a dream.
She puts out Bm all her beautiful Bm heart and soul for you. E
Sweet A mamma blue.

Sweet D mamma blue will only sing about the E truth.
And it will A get to you. A7
Sweet D mamma blue will sing of love as only she can do. E
A Gbm Bm E A

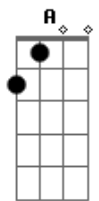

Sweet mamma blue. Sweet Mamma Blue

One night I stayed past closing time.
"Sweet mamma blue my troubled mind."
She sang the night away for me.
She made me see what I couldn't see.
That only by loving life will all your dreams come true.
Sweet mamma blue.

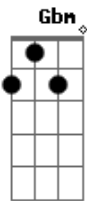

Chorus

They say she's gone from misery.
But she still lives in my memory.
I still can see her smile and say
"I'll bet you make it all the way."
If you will try the Lord will surely see you through.
Sweet E mamma blue, Gbm
The world sure will miss you.
And when I Bm feel blue I Bm think of you. E
A Gbm Bm E A
Sweet A mamma blue. Sweet mamma blue.
