Intro: Em G C D
                                                           We're coming after you
                                                           C
Fm
                                                           Nowhere to run
Nothing is the same
                                                           Em
                                                           We're coming after you
G
There's a new world
                                                           C D Em G
                                                           This is the hunt
C
Calling my name
                                                           This is the hunt
D
I can't escape this
                                                           Fm
                                                           We live in shadows
Fm
Shadows break the dark
                                                           С
                                                           We live where darkness hides
              С
G
And we know they can't be verified
D Em G
                                                           Em
                                                           We'll go where no one goes
Our fate is beckoning
                                                           C
                                                           We won't give up this fight
  C D
It's beckoning
                                                           Fm
                                                           We're coming after you
