

RuPaul - Superstar

Tom: G

Now that the time has come
Waiting what seemed like forever
Gather your broken dreams
Put all the pieces together
And everyone will see what you were meant to be

All of the glamour and all of the fame
People are gonna remember your name
Now and forever your dream's coming true
They're gonna love it whatever you do

Gonna love you, as you are
Gonna love you, you're a superstar
Gonna love you, as you are
Gonna love you, you're a superstar
Gonna love you, as you are
Gonna love you, you're a superstar

Here is where you belong
Planets aligned for this moment
Singing the sweetest song
A melody full of emotion
And everyone will see what you were meant to be

All of the glamour and all of the fame
People are gonna remember your name
Now and forever your dream's coming true
They're gonna love it whatever you do

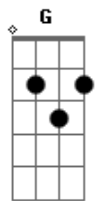

Gonna love you, as you are
Gonna love you, you're a superstar
Gonna love you, as you are
Gonna love you, you're a superstar
Gonna love you, as you are
Gonna love you, you're a superstar

Sacrifices made
Were never sacrificed in vain
Such a small price to pay
Yesterday

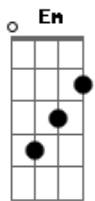

Gonna love you, as you are
Gonna love you, you're a superstar
Gonna love you, as you are
Gonna love you, love you, love you

Gonna love you, as you are
Gonna love you, you're a superstar
Gonna love you, as you are
Gonna love you, you're a superstar
