

Russ - Missin You Crazy

Tom: Bb

Yeah, I been thinking a lot yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, come on

It's been way too long
Since I seen you, looked you in your eyes
Riding 'round the town and staying out

Don't wanna say goodbye
Everything's so different now

You're just what I'm missing now
But I know that I can't have you back

I guess I'm tripping now

Sometimes I start missin' you crazy
Ain't nothing quite like you (yeah)
Love like this keeps going and going
I cannot forget you (no)
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Ride 'round town in a hoopty (uh)

Way before I ever had a groupie (uh)
Back when I used to wear the same five shirts

Way before I ever had Gucci (uh)

Way before I ever had a Rollie on

Talking back when I dropped Corleone
Picking up an eighth that my homie got

Fucking in the car, that's the only spot
Back when I felt more free
Back when I smoked more weed
Back when I drove up and down 92
With a view of the moon and you

In the passenger seat
That was so good

Now its all gone
Is what it is 'cause we both moved on
At least we

Have memories
And we also have got song (yeah)

Bb

It's been way too long
Since I seen you, looked you in your eyes
Riding 'round the town and staying out

Don't wanna say goodbye
Everything's so different now

You're just what I'm missing now
But I know that I can't have you back

I guess I'm tripping now

Sometimes I start missin' you crazy
Ain't nothing quite like you (yeah)
Love like this keeps going and going
I cannot forget you (no)
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh

Yeah, if you saw me now

Would you recognize me or would you call me out?
I know it's been a while but I'm still me
But honestly it's been so long

That I wouldn't be offended if you didn't even feel me

There's a gap now
Big enough to make us forget how we felt in the past now

Everything moving so fast now
Damn, I miss things going slower

I miss us being closer
I mean I got a good thing

But I feel like I don't even really know her
This a new life

I didn't do you right
But I got a second chance to improve my appreciation
I should take it

I'm sorry that I ever got jaded (for real)

It's been way too long
Since I seen you, looked you in your eyes
Riding 'round the town and staying out

Don't wanna say goodbye
Everything's so different now

You're just what I'm missing now
But I know that I can't have you back
