

Sabrina Carpenter - Never Getting Laid

Call up the boys and crack a Miller Lite, watch the fight tom:
                                                                                                               C7M

  We were so happy, why not mix it up?
                                                                        Was when we called it quits (Called it quits)
  I'm so at peace, yeah I can't drink enough
                                                                        I was so confident (Confident)
                                     C7M
 No way to know just who you're thinking of
                                                                         'Til the thought of it hit
 I just wish you didn't have a mind
                                                                        That any given night, you could be using your lips
                                                                              C7M
