

Sabrina Carpenter - Never Getting Laid

Call up the boys and crack a Miller Lite, watch the fight tom:
                                                                       Us girls are fun but stressful, am I right? (Am I right?)
Intro: F C E7 Am D7
                                                                                                       Am
        F C E7 Am D7
                                                                       And you got a right hand anyway (And only yesterday)
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                     [Pré-refrão]
                                                                     Was when we called it quits (Called it quits)
 We were so happy, why not mix it up?
 I'm so at peace, yeah I can't drink enough
                                                                     I was so confident (Confident)
 No way to know just who you're thinking of
                                                                      'Til the thought of it hit
 I just wish you didn't have a mind
                                                                     That any given night, you could be using your lips
[Pré-refrão]
                                                                     On a girl with big tits
                                                                             E7
                                                                     Boy, I know where you live
(Ah) That could flip like a switch
                                                                     [Refrão]
Like a wandering drift
     E7
To a neighboring bitch
                                                                     Baby, I'm not angry
                                                                                         Gbm
When just the other night you said you need me, what gives?
                                                                     Love you just the same (I love you just the same)
How did it come to this?
                                                                     I just hope you get agoraphobia someday
                                                                     And all your days are sunny (Sunny from your windowpane)
Boy, I know where you live
[Refrão]
                                                                     From your windowpane
                                                                     Wish you a lifetime full of happiness
Baby, I'm not angry
                                                                     And a forever of never getting laid (Forever)
Love you just the same
                                                                     Mm - mm
I just hope you get agoraphobia someday
                                                                                                  Dbm
                                                                     A forever of never getting laid (Laid, mm)
And all your days are sunny
                                                                     [Final]
From your windowpane
Wish you a lifetime full of happiness
                                                                       At the end of the rainbow
And a forever of never getting laid
                                                                     I hope you find
                                                                                  Am Am
[Segunda Parte]
                                                                     A good whole lot of nothing
                                                                           Gb

 I think this schedule could be very nice (Very nice)
                                                                        Dm D
                                                                     And abstinence is just a state of mind
