

Sabrina Carpenter - We Almost Broke Up Again Last Night

tom:

G

Bullshit repeats itself

Is that how the saying goes?

Been here a thousand times

(Selective memory though)

I hear it in his eyes

He sees it in my tone

Is what it is and it's predictable

All the I love you's and I'm sorry's were said

We had our sex and then we made amends, that's right

Called it a false alarm to all of our friends

Then we almost broke up again last night

(We almost)

(Got so close)

When I reach to pull the plug

I swear he's starts working out

And on the days I'm a little much

That's when I tell them how sweet he treats me

And how no other boys compete

I know how it looks, I know how it sounds

Least we'll give 'em something to talk about
