Intro: Em Gbm G B7
                                                           That's making me think that we're not supposed to do this
                                                                                         G B7
                                                                                  Gbm
                                                           I know that you're trying to understand, but you can't [Verso 1]
                                                                                                 Gbm
                   Gbm G B7
                                                           'Cause I keep on making excuses about the fall, the rise
It's something in the sun or the air
                   Gbm G B7
                                                           [Pré-Refrão 2]
It's making me want to run away from here
                   Gbm G B7
                                                           B7
I know that you want me to stay with you, but no
                                                           And how my mind is ruptured
                                    Gbm
                                                           Gbm G B7
So I'll keep on making excuses about the sun, the earth, the
                                                           Wired, and I'm tired of it
                                                           I know you're trying
