

Salem Ilese - Mad At Disney

tom:

[Primeira Parte]

I'm mad at Disney, Disney
They tricked me, tricked me
Had me wishing on a shooting star
But?now?I'm twenty something
I?still know nothing
About who I am?or what I'm not

[Pré-Refrão]

So call me a pessimist
But I don't believe in
Finding a true love's kiss is bullshit

[Refrão]

I felt sad love
I felt bad love
Sometimes happy love
Turns into giving up
I felt hurt love
About the word love
What the hell is love supposed to feel like
What the hell is love, what the hell is love
What the hell is love supposed to feel like

[Segunda Parte]

My fairy grandma warned me
Cinderella's story
Only ended in a bad divorce
The prince ain't sleeping when he
Take his sleeping beauty
To the motel on his snow white horse

[Pré-Refrão]

So call me a pessimist
But I don't believe in
Finding a true love's kiss is bullshit

I felt sad love
I felt bad love
Sometimes happy love
Turns into giving up
I felt hurt love
About the word love
What the hell is love supposed to feel like
What the hell is love, what the hell is love
What the hell is love supposed to feel like
What the hell is love, what the hell is love
What the hell is love supposed to feel like
I'm mad at Disney, Disney
They tricked me, tricked me
No more wishing on a shooting star
