                                                               What a wonderful play
[Primeira Parte]
                                                               An endearing endeavour
                                                               We never said never
Wait, I haven't finished yet
                                                               Don't wait on the weather to change
I'm starting to write down the words
                                                               [Verso 7]
That I've kept in my heart
Stay, stay with me darling
                                                               Be brave, never mind what they say
Just a little longer
                                                               We spent too long pretending
So we can work out what this is
                                                               Now the story is ending
[Segunda Parte]
                                                               A new moon is guiding our way
                                                               [Verso 8]
'Cause I and you, we are the same
                                                               And babe, sail to Santa Fe
We are mirrors reflecting the colours
And lessons
                                                               We'll plant seeds in the garden
That are easy to bury
                                                               Now the journey is starting
And just walk away with the shame
                                                               Let the wind blow us into our fate
[Terceira Parte]
                                                               [Refrão]
Oh, but I should have known
                                                               And all that I do
That before I met you, that I manifest
                                                               And all that I do
And fall deep in love with your soul
                                                                             С
                                                               I'll do it for you
[Quarta Parte]
                                                               And all that I do
A-H0... to the waters that flow
                                                               And all that I do
That cleanse our great spirit
                                                               I'll do it for you
And wash away all that is old
                                                               [Ponte]

                                                               The train ride, the high tide
                                                               The roads that are winding and secrets
And all that I do
                                                               We're finding
And all that I do
                                                               The same kind, worlds collide

                                                               The magic and thunder
And all that I do
                                                               The dance and the wonder
And all that I do
                                                               [Verso 9]
I'll do it for you
                                                               Awake mind, hands bind
[Quinta Parte]
                                                               This forever journey
You rise, rise like wild flowers
                                                               How you come to learn me
You carry the sunshine and dance in the
                                                               It's our time to make a fire
                                                               A child and the laughter
You make friends into lovers
                                                               Open the new chapter with you
And run with the wolves far away
                                                               [Refrão]
