```

```
  G
Throwin' stones is easy for you

Broken bones I?m here for you
B
Always, always
G
I can?t lie I fear for you

'Til I'm left in tears for you
B
Always, always

G
Always the same, you're not to blame
B
Always the same, you're not to blame

G
I wanna be the one that you been calling

So it?s hurting me to know that you're falling
B
Want you to wake up with me every single morning

If you don't then I know I'm not important
G
I love every single thing about you

When you look at me I start to feel useful
```

```
B
I know that the world it can be brutal

Cos I found that about you on Google

G                                          B
You care, you just haven?t seen me cry with your eyes
            B
Cry with your eyes
G                                      B
It isn't fair, that the media is spreading these lies
                              B
They're spreading you thin, so thin

G
Don't worry about me
                              B
I'll be fine if I have enough time to adore you
If I don't then I'm guess that I'm a goner
 G
Don't worry about me, yeah
G                              B
All I gotta do is just get rid of your lawyer
                              B
He just wants you to himself, he's a liar

G
I wanna be the one that you been calling

So it?s hurting me to know that you're falling
B
Want you to wake up with me every single morning

If you don't then I know I'm not important
G
I love every single thing about you
When you look at me I start to feel useful
B
I know that the world it can be brutal

Cos I found that about you on Google
