

Sammy Jackson - Honey

```
tom:
                Bb (forma dos acordes no tom de Gm )
                                                                You send me over the starts
            [Primeira Parte]
                                                                Send me out of this galaxy
         Eb
                                                                You're steady breaking my heart
Met you on Sunday Not
                                                                 'Cause you're never here with me
Iam dreading Monday
                                                                You send me over the starts
Way does time go slowly
                                                                Send me out of this galaxy
When you're feeling lonely
                                                                You're steady breaking my heart
[Refrão]
                                                                Cause you're never here with me
                                                                [Refrão]
Wondering what we could be
But we're busy busy
                                                                Wondering what we could be
Time spent with you cost money
                                                                But we're busy busy
But I'll pay the price
                                                                Time spent with you cost money
If you stay by my side
                                                                But I'll pay the price
Where I can't get enough of your honey
                                                                If you stay by my side
Minutes turn to hours
                                                                Where I can't get enough of your honey
Sending April showers
                                                                Minutes turn to hours
But with you the sky stay sunny
                                                                Sending April showrers
When you're passing by me
                                                                But with you the sky stay sunny
Flowers droop and sigh
                                                                When you're passing by me
I can't get enough of you honey
                                                                Flowers droop and sigh
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                                I can't get enough of you honey
               Eb
                       Dm7 Cm7
Friday can't come sooner
                                                                [Terceira Parte]
I watch the moon get blu-er
                                                                You send me over the starts
               Eb
You say maybe Wednesday
                                                                Send me out of this galaxy
Bum Iam booked till May
                                                                You're steady breaking my heart
[Refrão]
                                                                 'Cause you're never here with me
Wondering what we could be
                                                                You send me over the starts
                                                                Send me out of this galaxy
But we're busy busy
                                                                Cm7
                                                                You're steady breaking my heart
Time spent with you cost money
But I'll pay the price
                                                                 'Cause you're never here with me
If you stay by my side
                                                                [Refrão]
Where I can't get enough of your honey
                                                                Wondering what we could be
Minutes turn to hours
                                                                But we're busy busy
Sending April showers
                                                                Time spent with you cost money
But with you the sky stay sunny
                                                                But I'll pay the price
When you're passing by me
                                                                If you stay by my side
Flowers droop and sigh
                                                                Where I can't get enough of your honey
I can't get enough of you honey
```

[Segunda Parte]

Oferecimento Lojalele.com.br

Minutes turn to hours	F
Sending April showers	You send me over the starts Eb Dm7
ED But with you the sky stay sunny	Send me out of this galaxy Cm7
F When you're passing by me	You're steady breaking my heart Eb
Flowers droop and sigh	'Cause you're never here with me F
Eb I can't get enough of you honey	You send me over the starts Eb Dm7
F	Send me out of this galaxy Cm7
F Eb I am dreading Monday	You're steady breaking my heart Eb
F	´Cause you're never here with me
F Eb When you're feeling lonely	[Refrão]
[Refrão]	F Wondering what we could be
F	But we're busy busy
Wondering what we could be	Eb Time spent with you cost money
But we're busy busy	F
b Time spent with you cost money	But I'll pay the price
But I'll pay the price	If you stay by my side Eb
If you stay by my side	Where I can't get enough of your honey F
Eb Where I can't get enough of your honey	Minutes turn to hours
F Minutes turn to hours	Sending April showrers Eb
Sending April showers	But with you the sky stay sunny F
Eb But with you the sky stay sunny	When you're passing by me
F When you're passing by me	Flowers droop and sigh
Flowers droop and sigh	I can't get enough of you honey
Eb I can't get enough of you honey	[Quinta Parte]
	F
[Pré-Refrão]	You send me over the starts Eb Dm7
F	Send me out of this galaxy Cm7
watch the moon get blu-er	You're steady breaking my heart Eb
F	´Cause you're never here with me F
Eb But I am booked till May	You send me over the starts Eb Dm7
[Refrão]	Send me out of this galaxy Cm7
F	You're steady breaking my heart Eb
Wondering what we could be	´Cause you're never here with me
But we're busy busy Eb	[Refrão]
Time spent with you cost money	F Wondering what we could be
But I'll pay the price	But we're busy busy
If you stay by my side	Eb
b Mhere I can't get enough of your honey	Time spent with you cost money F
r Minutes turn to hours	But I'll pay the price
Sending April showers	If you stay by my side Eb
Eb But with you the sky stay sunny	Where I can't get enough of your honey F
F When you're passing by me	Minutes turn to hours
Flowers droop and sigh	Sending April showers E b
Eb I can't get enough of you honey	But with you the sky stay sunny F
[Quarta Parte]	When you're passing by me
	Flowers droop and sigh

Oferecimento Lojalele.com.br

Acordes

