

Sarah Mclachlan - Turn The Lights Down Low

tom:
Intro: Bm

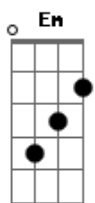

Em
Night falls heavy like an iron fist
D
The silence taut and frail
Em
I weigh the depths of love and terror
D
In this test I cannot fail
G
'Cause there's no map to guide the human heart
Bm G
Down roads we've never been Em A
Sometimes I feel I'm running blind but I'm trying

G
So turn the lights down low
D
Let the night come easy
G Bm
Take my hand, won't you let me in?
G
'Cause when the world comes crashing
Em
Down inside your head
C
I'll be right here
A D
Right here for you
Em
Words fall heavy out of tired mouths
D
Resigned to rage and roar
Em
I see behind your eyes the tempest rising
D
And I can't reach your shore
G Em
When all my good intentions fall apart
Bm G
And I wind up on my knees
