

Scorpions - Too Far

Tom: B
Intro:

Verso:

I wanna read in your eyes
that you say yes when you say no

I wanna take a step across this line
'till you can feel my love

Abm E B Gb
You open the door, and it hits to the core...

Ain't got no pearls or diamond rings
I only got my heartbeat...

But it won't be long, and I will wait

and melt inside your heart

You open the door, and it hits to the core...
