A

Woman
World

You can Change My

Versos 1 e 2 :

1.I'm chained to the fears inside these walls
2.I see shadows coming through the walls

The silence talks loud about the things I recall
I hear voices but noone's talking at all

Through the bricks in the window, I scream at the world
I can feel the madness crawling up my spine

But when noone is listening it's hard to be heard
Reaching out To grab your mind

Woman

You can change my

Verso 3 :

You've never seen me but I know you so well
And before it kills me, I gotta break this spell
The Deeper we touch, the higher we'll go

The time has come, to hear my soul

Woman , I'm gonna change your world
