

Sean Curran - Ain't Seen Nothing

tom:

C

Intro: C

[Primeira Parte]

I know you know the stories
About the kingdom and the saints
About this God who dined with sinners
And this mystery called grace

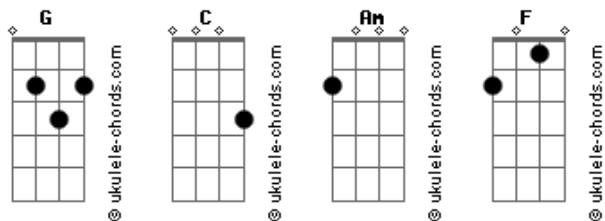

[Segunda Parte]

Maybe somehow you've lost the wonder
Oh 'cause life can be so cruel
It's only human to question where He is
And if His promises are true
I've got some good news for you

[Refrão]

You ain't seen nothing
You ain't seen nothing yet
You ain't seen nothing
You ain't seen nothing yet
You might be thinking that the world looks
Big but it fits in His hands

Acordes

He's been writing
Your story so He knows how it ends
You ain't seen nothing
You ain't seen nothing yet
[Terceira Parte]
If you believe He heals the broken
Rest assured He's not overlooking you
Oh yes and bring your doubts
Bring your fears bring it all
And watch what He can do
I've got some real good news for you
[Ponte]

We've only seen a glimpse
Just a piece of who He is
We've only just begun
To experience His love
All the splendor of His goodness
All the wonder of His grace
We've only scratched the surface
Eternity still waits oh
