

Sebastian Portillo - 2000 Degrees

tom:
Capostrate na 2ª casa
Intro: G Em Dadd9 Am

[Refrão]

Don't leave
Stay a little longer for me please
'Cause our love, it takes me back to seventeen, so good
She slipped her number right inside my jeans, oh no
Baby don't you be my enemy
No regrets, just the best, living the dream
She's so hot, she's like two thousand degrees
She's so sharp like a knife, she made me bleed, oh no

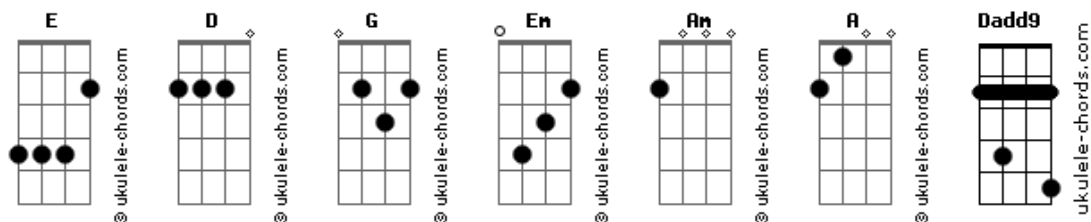

[Primeira Parte]

But maybe I can be your sunshine
Just forget 'bout yesterday, just forget about the rain
Cause I'm drowning in the sunlight
So baby please don't make it rain cause I need you
More today than I thought I would
Rolling stones breaking all the firewood
Two thousand degrees inside by best friend's room
Nobody will treat you like the way I do, yeah

[Refrão]

Don't leave
Stay a little longer for me please

[Segunda Parte]

But if you want everything just tell me you do
'Cause I'll give you the sun and I'll give you the moon
And if you like teasing me just tell me the truth
'Cause I'll run away so damn quicker than I thought I would
Rolling stones breaking all the firewood
Two thousand degrees inside my best friend's room
Nobody will treat you like the way I do, yeah
