

Seether - Sympathetic

Tom: D

And my words will be here when i'm gone
'cause i'm fading again against the wind and the words you left me linger on 'cause i'm failing again now never to change this

Coro:

And i'm sympathetic, never letting on, i feel the way i do as i'm falling apart again at seems

And it seems i'm alone here hollow again
'cause i'm fading away againste the wind and the scars i'm left with smallow again

'cause i'm failing now never to change this

Coro(1x)

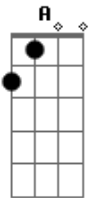

the same old feelings are takin' over and i can't seem to make
'em go away
and i can't take all the pressure sober, but i can't seem to make it go away
the same old feelings are taken over, and i can't seem to make
'em go away
and i can't take all the pressure sober, but i can't seem to make it go away
but i can't seem to make it go away

Coro(1x)
