

Selena Gomez - Back To You

You could break my heart in two
Intro: Em
             C
                                                             But when it heals, it beats for you

G | -----0----0
                                                             I know it's forward, but it's true
-----j----j
E|-0---0-----|-3---3---3---3
                                                                            G
                                                             I wanna hold you when I'm not supposed to \begin{tabular}{ll} Em & C & G \end{tabular}
[Primeira Parte]
                                                             When I'm lying close to someone else
                                                                 Em
                                                             You're stuck in my head and I can't get you out of it
Took you like a shot
                                                             If I could do it all again
Thought that I could chase you with a cold evening
                                                                                   Em C G Em C
Let a couple years water down how I'm feeling about you
                                                             I know I'd go back to you
And every time we talk
                                                              I know I'd go back to you
Every single word builds up to this moment
                                                             (I'd go back to you, I'd go back to you)
             Em
And I gotta convince myself I don't want it
                                                             (I was there and wasn't sure but I'd go back to you)
Even though I do, ah
                                                              I know I'd go back to you
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                             [Ponte]
You could break my heart in two
                                                              You can break my heart in two
But when it heals, it beats for you
                                                             But when it heals, it beats for you
I know it's forward, but it's true
                                                             I know it's forward, but it's true
[Refrão]
                                                             Won't lie, I'd go back to you
                                                             You know, my thoughts are running loose
I wanna hold you when I'\ensuremath{\,\square} m not supposed to
                                                              It's just a thing you make me do
When I'm lying close to someone else
                                                              And I could fight, but what's the use?
You're stuck in my head and I can't get you out of it
                                                              I know I'd go back to you
If I could do it all again
                 Em C G Em C
                                                             [Refrão]
I know I'd go back to you
                             Em C G Em C
I know I'd go back to you (oh-oh)
                                                             I wanna hold you when I'm not supposed to (when I'm not supposed to)
I know I'd go back to you
                                                             Em
                                                             When I'm lying close to someone else (ah-ah)
[Segunda Parte]
                                                             You're stuck in my head and I can't get you out of it (oh-oh)
                                                             If I could do it all again
We never got it right
                                                             N.C.
Playing and replaying old conversations
                                                             I know I'd go back to you
Overthinking every word and I hate it
                                                             (I'll go back to you, I'll go back to you)
'Cause it'⊡s not me
                                                              I know I'd go back to you
And what's the point in hiding?
                                                             (I'd go back to you, I'd go back to you)
Everybody knows we got unfinished business
                                                             (Ooh-ooh-ooh)
And I'll regret it if I didn't say
                                                             I know I'd go back to you
This isn't what it could be
                                                             (Go back to you, go back to you, go back to
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                             (Go back to you, go back to you, go back to
