Sergio Oliveira (Gospel) - Happiness Is Near

```
Got a mind to think
                              tom:
                                                                                      F7
                                                                    Know what?s right or wrong
                 Α
Intro: A E Gbm
                                                                                   D
        Gbm E D E7
                                                                    You?ve got everything
                                                                                      E7
                                                                    Your life is bright and strong
When you?re feeling down
          F7
                                                                    You know you?re all right
You say nothing?s good
             D
When you look around
                                                                    You know it is true
                   F7
Say you?re not understood
                                                                    Can?t you see the blessings?
                                                                                                 A D
You say life is bad
                                                                    The Lord?s smiling at you!
         E7
                                                                    So, lift up your hands
No one cares for you
               D
Say you?re growing dead
                                                                    No time to complain
                F7
Say that you live the blues
                                                                    Be different this Christmas
                                                                                                   A D
                                                                    And ease someone else?s pain
But it isn?t right
You know what I mean
                                                                    Try to be different this Christmas
                                                                                                      Bm
                                                                                                          A D
You say you?re unhappy
                                                                    Think of those who are really sad
                                                                                             E7
But that?s what you?ve never been
                                                                    Try to see their Christmas
                                                                                                            D
?Cause you?ve got a home
                                                                    Then you?ll see who?s growing dead
Got all close to you
                                                                    Make someone happy this Christmas
                                                                                                     A D F7
                                                                                               Bm
And so many people
                                                                    Think of giving a helping hand
Wish they could live like you do
                                                                    Share with them your Christmas
                                                                                                           A E
                                                                    Show them that they?ve got a friend
Try to be different this Christmas
Think of those who are really sad
                                                                    Make someone happy this Christmas
                        E7
                                                                                                  Dbm
                                                                                                           B E
                                                                    Do help someone stop shedding tears
Try to see their Christmas
                                  A D
                                                                                              Gb7
Then you?ll see who?s growing dead
                                                                    Be different this Christmas!
                                                                                                        B E
Make someone happy this Christmas
                                                                    Can?t you see happiness is near?
                           Bm
                                                                                                   B
Think of giving a helping hand
                                                                    And have a very merry Christmas
                                                                                           Dbm
                                                                                                        В
                                                                                                          E
Share with them your Christmas
                                                                    Don?t let anything make you fall
                                                                                       Gb7
                                                                    A very bright Christmas
Show them that they?ve got a friend
                                                                                                       Abm
                                                                                                    B (AEGbm)
                                                                    That?s what I do wish you all
(Gbm E D E7)
                                                                                      Dbm Gb7
                                                                    A wonderful Christmas
                                                                                           Abm F
                                                                                     G
You?ve got ears to hear
                                                                    That?s what I do wish you all
                                                                                             Gb7
              E7
                                                                                      Dbm
You?ve got legs to run
                                                                    A very merry Christmas
           D
                                                                                                R
All for you is clear
                                                                    That?s what I do wish you all
              E7
Got eyes to see the sun
                                                                    [Final] Gb Abm E Gb7 B
Acordes
      A Dbn
                     Ε
                                   Gbn
                                                                                                                 ukulele-chords.com
                                         ukulele-chords.com
                                                                                                   ukulele-chords.com
            ukulele-chords.com
                           Jkulele-chords.coπ
                                                                      Jkulele-chords.com
                                                                                    ukulele-chords.com
                                                       ukulele-chords.
```

Gb7

ukulele-chords.com

