

Serj Tankian - Cornucopia

Tom: Gb

Intro: riff 1

Gb Abm

I loved you in the sunshine
You chase the moon with a spear

Gb

Tardy afternoons in utopia
Kiss an ugly turtle to make it cry
Sever the head of cornucopia

Gb

We rape the Earth and don't know why it strikes

Do you believe in stormy weather, stormy weather?
Hurricanes play musical chairs with homes and chattel
The whirling dervish tornadoes reek all disaster
See-saw tsunamis give and take
What's the matter?

I loved you in the sunshine
You chase the moon with a spear
I pray that you will be all mine
You foam at the mouth and disappear

Sever the head of cornucopia
We fuck the earth and don't know why it cries

Do you believe in stormy weather, stormy weather?
Hurricanes play musical chairs with homes and chattel
The whirling dervish tornadoes reek all disaster
See-saw tsunamis give and take

What's the matter?

I loved you in the sunshine
You chase the moon with a spear
I pray that you will be all mine
You foam at the mouth and disappear

We broke our pact
And away we go
To another place

Home, where we call home
Why do we disfigure all the things
That are so beautiful inside?
Where we compose the calamities
For all to abide
Microcosm, macrocosm are the same
What a lame game

Don't you think we're extraordinary?
Believing, and seeing
Realizing the imaginary
Don't you, don't you?
Yes, I think we're extraordinary
Being, and living
Yes, I think we ought to marry

We broke our pact
And away we go
To another place

I loved you in the sunshine
You chase the moon with a spear
I pray that you will be all mine
You foam at the mouth and disappear
