

Serj Tankian - Cornucopia

Tom: Gb

Intro: riff 1

Gb Abm
 I loved you in the sunshine
 You chase the moon with a spear

Gb
 Tardy afternoons in utopia
 Kiss an ugly turtle to make it cry
 Sever the head of cornucopia
Gb
 We rape the Earth and don't know why it strikes

Do you believe in stormy weather, stormy weather?
 Hurricanes play musical chairs with homes and chattel
 The whirling dervish tornadoes reek all disaster
 See-saw tsunamis give and take
 What's the matter?

I loved you in the sunshine
 You chase the moon with a spear
 I pray that you will be all mine
 You foam at the mouth and disappear

Sever the head of cornucopia
 We fuck the earth and don't know why it cries

Do you believe in stormy weather, stormy weather?
 Hurricanes play musical chairs with homes and chattel
 The whirling dervish tornadoes reek all disaster
 See-saw tsunamis give and take

What's the matter?

I loved you in the sunshine
 You chase the moon with a spear
 I pray that you will be all mine
 You foam at the mouth and disappear

We broke our pact
 And away we go
 To another place

Home, where we call home
 Why do we disfigure all the things
 That are so beautiful inside?
 Where we compose the calamities
 For all to abide
 Microcosm, macrocosm are the same
 What a lame game

Don't you think we're extraordinary?
 Believing, and seeing
 Realizing the imaginary
 Don't you, don't you?
 Yes, I think we're extraordinary
 Being, and living
 Yes, I think we ought to marry

We broke our pact
 And away we go
 To another place

I loved you in the sunshine
 You chase the moon with a spear
 I pray that you will be all mine
 You foam at the mouth and disappear
