

Shane Smith & the Saints - All I See Is You

tom:
Intro: Am F C
Am F C
Am F C
Am F C

[Primeira Parte]

Am F C
Storm's running through the midwest
Am F C
Like a bandit out on the loose
Am F C
And all the clouds are black as nightfall
Am F C
But all I see is you

Am F C
The rain's pouring through the window panes
Am F C
And the cracks of this roof
Am F C
Tea's boiling from the spout of the pot
Am F C
But all I see is you

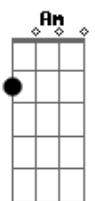

( Am F C )
( Am F C )
( Am F C )
( Am F C )

[Segunda Parte]

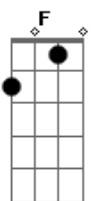

Am F C
It's like the nights in Salt Lake City
Am F C
Where the snow fell down too soon
Am F C
People laughed and howled from their beers
Am F C
But all I could see was you

Am F C
And I remember our first night abroad
Am F C
As the sun traded shifts with the moon
Am F C
It was a lot to take in for some eyes from east Texas
Am F C
But all I could see was you
F
Cause all I ever see is you

( Am F C )
( Am F C )
( Am F C )

[Terceira Parte]

Am F C
I'll make my way to the doctor one day
Am F C
When my eyes don't work like they should
Am F C
Just read the letters from large down to small
Am F C
But all I'll see is you

Am F C
And when I'm old and weathered
Am F C
From the winds of a life that consume
Am F C
I pray to God the day I'll find my death bed
Am F C
All I'll see is you

F
Cause all I want to see is you
F C

Every day

F Am
Oh oh oh I will wait

G F
A few more nights but until that time

F
All I see is you

( Am F C )
( Am F C )
( Am F C )
( Am F C )

[Quarta Parte]

Am F C
Storm's running through the midwest
Am F C
Like a bandit out on the loose
Am F C
And all the clouds are black as nightfall
Am F C
But all I see is you

Am F C
The rain's pouring through the window pains
Am F C
And the cracks of this roof
Am F C
Tea's boiling from the spout of the pot
Am F C
But all I see is you

F
Cause all I ever see is you
