

Shania Twain - Home ain't where his heart is (Anymore)

Tom: G

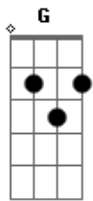

1. ^G ~ ^C ^D ^G
 He knew how to reach me deep inside,
^C ^D ^G
 and he found a part of me I could not hide.
^C ^D ^{Em}
 And we'd walk and talk and touch tenderly,
^C ^D ^G
 then he'd lay me down and make love to me.
^C ^D ^G
 We built a love so strong it couldn't break,
^C ^D ^G
 there was not a road we were afraid to take.
^C ^D ^{Em}
 And we'd kiss all the way from Arkansas to Rome,
^C ^D ^G
 cause in each other's arms we were home sweet home.
^C ^G
 But he don't feel the same since our lives became ^{Em} ^C ^D
 years of bills, babies, and chains.

^G ^D ^{Em}
 Home, home ain't where his heart is anymore.
^G ^D ^{Em}
 He may hang his hat behind our bedroom door,
^G ^D ^{Em} ^C
 but he don't lay his head down to love me like before.
^G ^D ^G ^{Em - D}
 Home ain't where his heart is anymore.

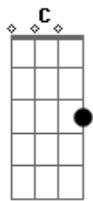

2. ^C ^D ^G
 If foundations made of stone can turn to dust,
^C ^D ^G
 then the hardest hearts of steel can turn to rust.
^C ^D ^{Em}
 If he could only find that feeling once again,
^C ^D ^G
 if we could only change the way the story ends.
^C ^G
 And he may still come home, but I live here alone,
^{Em} ^C ^D
 the love that built these walls is gone.
