Intro: Aadd9 G

Aadd9 G Aadd9 G
I come from a land where the winters are long and cold
G Aadd9 G Aadd9
Where the ice crawls over the lake and the strong winds blow
Aadd9 G Aadd9 G
Where old men are tough and tell tales of old
Aadd9 G Aadd9 G
A sore back for a hard day's work used to feed their souls
Aadd9 G Aadd9 G Aadd9 G
Chicago, I never knew I'd miss you til I left and came back
Aadd9 G Aadd9 G
Chicago, I never knew how much I'd miss you til I left and came back
Aadd9 G Aadd9 G
My father was a steel working man
Aadd9 G Aadd9
With an old style in his hand he used to stomp across these lands
Aadd9 G Aadd9 G
We buried him here between Roosevelt and 110
Aadd9 G Aadd9 G
I still visit his grave every now and then
Aadd9 G Aadd9 G Aadd9 G
Chicago, I never knew I'd miss you til I left and came back
Aadd9 G Aadd9 G
Chicago, I never knew how much I'd miss you til I left and came back

Aadd9 G Aadd9 G
I used to lay my head where kings and stones held ground
Aadd9 G Aadd9 G
The warring in these streets, it still makes an awful sound
Aadd9 G Aadd9 G
Innocence wouldn't stray their rounds
Aadd9 G Aadd9 G
Bullets broke the windows as our bodies hit the ground
Aadd9 G Aadd9 G Aadd9 G
Chicago, I never knew I'd miss you til I left and came back
Aadd9 G Aadd9 G
Chicago, I never knew how much I'd miss you til I left and came back
Aadd9 G Aadd9 G
It took a while to understand these facts
Aadd9 G Aadd9 G
That made me who I am and gave me insight to react
Aadd9 G Aadd9 G
Now I stand proud in being from this land
Aadd9 G Aadd9 G
And maybe you can learn from my experience firsthand
Aadd9 G Aadd9 G Aadd9 G
Chicago, I never knew I'd miss you til I left and came back
Aadd9 G Aadd9 G
Chicago, I never knew how much I'd miss you til I left and came back
