

Shawn James - Icarus

tom:
G
Here at the edge of the world I make my final escape
There's a small chance I'll make it out alive
I've heard this tale before I know just how it ends

F A Gm Dm
Fire won't bend just 'cause you believe
And the higher you go, the less you can see
They say he rose like a bird, fell like a stone
Now the ocean's his grave and the sky stands alone
Flew too close to the Sun
F Bb A Dm

I don't pray for mercy now I never could kneel anyhow
If I fall, then let the silence sing
With the Sun in my eyes the fall underneath

Acordes

F A Gm Dm
Fire won't bend just 'cause you believe
And the higher you go, the less you can see
They say he rose like a bird, fell like a stone
Now the ocean's his grave, the sky stands alone
Flew too close to the Sun

F Bb A Dm
Gm A
If flying means falling then so be the cost
At least in the rise I found what I lost

Gb Bb Abm Ebm
Fire won't bend just 'cause you believe
And the higher you go, the less you can see
They say he rose like a bird, fell like a stone
Now the ocean's his grave, the sky stands alone
Flew too close to the Sun
