

Shawn James - The Thief And The Moon

Tom: G

Intro: Em G B Em

Em Said the thief to the Moon "I'll extinguish your light soon Am C Em

Em I'll put an end to all the light that you shed on this world in its darkened state Am C G B

Em Said the Moon to the Thief, You know not of what you seek Am C Em
Am C G B

Em You'll doom the world to wander the night with no light to guide the paths that men seek

Oh, but all the wealth in the world will be mine Am C Am Em
Am C Am Em

Without a means of defense for all those blind

My very existence is a race to attain wealth Am C Em

B For the thief's only loyalty in life is to the devil and himself Em

Em G B Em

The earth will rise up and devour all that you are Am D Am Em

The skies will call forth thunderous storms from afar Am D Am Em

When you're dead, there'll be no grave to remember your name Am D Am Em

B For your greed brings your end and there's no one but yourself to blame Em

Em G B Em

Acordes

