tom:

Intro: G C G

The sun is setting on your last good try

Wonder if you're really gone this time

Why don't you go ahead and break my heart

Why are you waiting?

Is it way too hard?

If moving on is what you wanna do

Why don't you do it, why don't you do it, baby

G Em
You can't tell me that we'll still be friends

And maybe some day we can try again

If you really need a brand new start
