Sia - Salted Wound

```
Tell her on how you feel,

C Am Bb F

Give her everything she needs to hear
Tom: C
Intro: C Am G
Verso:
                                                                 Am
                                                                             Bb F
                                                          Give your heart, and say come take it
C Am
                     Bb F
                                                                   Am Bb F
                                                          С
Lonely float got in the way
                                                          And she will see you're a good man
                           Bb F
C
        Am
You are the feel, and knew it anyway
                                                          Refrão:
C Am Bb F
Take a chance, it wasn't what you know
C Am Bb F
Take my hand, and don't let go
                                                          Dm G Dm Am G
                                                          Oh, ooh ooooh
                                                          C Dm Am
                                                          You can do it,
Refrão:
                                                           G
                                                          Don't break
                                                                       Dm Am
Dm G Dm Am G
                                                          С
                                                          Yeah, you'll push through it,
Oh, ooh ooooh
C Dm Am
                                                          G Dm
                                                          You're safe
Dm Am C
You can do it,
 G
Don't break
                                                          Yes, you can do it
C
             Dm Am
                                                          G Dm
Yeah, you'll push through it,
G C
You're safe
C D
                                                          Don't break
                                                                           С
                                                          Yeah, you'll pull through it,
Am G C
You're safe
C Dm Am
            Dm
Yes, you can do it
Am G
Don't break
              Dm
                                                          Yes, you can do it,
С
                        Am
Yeah, you'll pull through it,
                                                          G
Don't break
     G
You're safe
                                                                              Dm Am
                                                          С
                                                          Yeah, you'll pull through it,
Verso:
                                                           G
```

You're safe

Acordes

