

Silverchair - Point of View

Tom: A

[0:00]

Liberate the people that you hate
Then cut yourself again
Elevate then drop back down
And see which ones remain
Remember all that she can say
Is that she knows she wants it

[0:32]

You'll make it through
With another point of view again

You'll make it through
With another point

[1:04]

Accusation, does yes mean no?
Or have you changed your mind?
Kill the nation before it grows
And be one of a kind
Remember all that she can say
Is that she knows she wants it

[1:36]

You'll make it through

With another point of view again

You'll make it through
With another point

Pretend the world's an ocean
Oh, I'm drowning

Pretend that I'm pollution
Oh, I'm dying

Pretend the steak's a cowboy
And the kiss will kill you

[2:33]

[2:47]

You'll make it through
With another point of view again

You'll make it through
With another point

[3:12]
