

Simple Minds - New Sunshine Morning

Tom: G

Riff

I tried to write this song
 I tried to memorize
 Such a long time ago
 More than i realize
 And are you bitter still
 Did we not pay the price once or twice
 Try to forgive me now please
 Try to forget about all those lies
 New sunshine morning
 Blackens up my eyes
 Takes me in its warmness
 And put me to a side
 New sunshine morning
 Blackens up my eyes
 Takes me in its warmness

And put me to a side

Much of the story isnt told
 Can you sympathize
 Seems like a lifetime ago
 You tried to rid my soul
 I tried to cheat on life
 You tried to kill me so
 Only a moment i realize
 New sunshine morning
 Opens up my day
 Carry carry me homeward
 Into another place
 New sunshine morning
 Opens my eyes
 Carries carries me onward
 Into a new sunrise
 New sunshine morning
 New sunshine morning
