

Simple Plan - Lucky One

Tom: C

Eb Intro:

Afinação: Eb Ab Db Gb Bb

All the stars are lined up so perfectly
 For everybody, but not for me
 Wish it could be easy
 But it never goes that way
 It's never like the movies
 It's never like they say

But maybe one day I'll be back one my feet
 And all of this pain will be gone
 And maybe it won't be so hard to be me
 And I'll find out just where I belong

It feels like it's taking forever
 But one day things can get better
 And maybe my time will come
 And I'll be the lucky one

(F C G )x2

Now I can't stop thinking
 How this life could be
 I can keep pretending
 But, honestly

Would it really make difference?
 Would it really ever change a thing?
 It's never like the movies
 It's never like you think

F C

But maybe one day I'll be back one my feet
 And all of this pain will be gone
 And maybe it won't be so hard to be me
 And I'll find out just where I belong

It feels like it's taking forever
 But one day things can get better
 And maybe my time will come
 And I'll be the lucky one

(F C G )x2

So give me a reason to keep holding on
 Something that makes me believe that my life's gonna change
 Seems like everyone else gets a shot, gets a break
 I can't wait for that to be me
 Maybe one day I'll be back on my feet
 And all of this pain will be gone (all of this pain will be gone)
 Maybe it won't be so hard to be me
 And I'll find out just where I belong (find out just where I belong)

Maybe one day I'll be back one my feet
 And all of this pain will be gone
 And maybe it won't be so hard to be me
 And I'll find out just where I belong

It feels like it's taking forever
 But one day things can get better
 And maybe my time will come
 And I'll be the lucky one

(F C G )x2

And I will be the lucky one
