

Sinead O'Connor - Drink Before The War

tom:

Intro: Abm Gb Abm
Abm Gb Abm
Abm Gb Abm
Abm Gb Abm

[Primeira Parte]

Abm Gb Abm
Well, you tell us that we're wrong
Abm Gb Abm
And you tell us not to sing our songs
Abm Gb Abm
Nothing we can say will make you see
Abm Gb Abm
You've got a heart of stone, you can never feel
Abm Gb Abm
You say, "Oh, I'm not afraid, it can't happen to me
Abm Gb Abm
I've lived my life as a good man
Abm Gb Abm
Oh no, you're out of your mind, it won't happen to me
Abm Gb Abm
'Cause I've carried my weight and I've been a strong man"
Abm Gb Abm
But listen to the man in the liquor store
Abm Gb Abm Abm Gb Abm
Yelling "Anybody wanna drink before the war?"

(Abm Gb Abm)

[Segunda Parte]

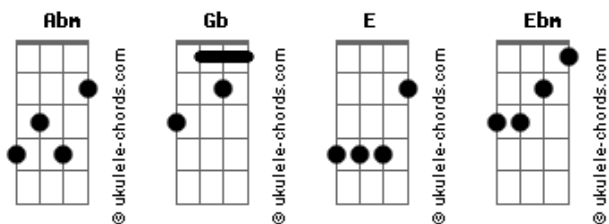

Abm Gb Abm
And your parents paid you through
Abm Gb Abm
You've got a nice big car, nothing bothers you
Abm Gb Abm
Somebody cut out your eyes, you refuse to see
Abm Gb Abm
Ah, somebody cut out your heart, you refuse to feel

[Refrão 1]

E Gb E Gb
And you live in a shell, you create your own hell
E Gb Abm

E Gb
You live in the past and talk about war
E Gb
And you dig your own grave, yeah
E Gb
But it's a life you can save
E Gb Abm
So stop getting fussed, it's not gonna happen

[Ponte]

Abm Gb
And you'll cry but you'll never fall
Abm Gb
No, no, no, you're building a wall
E Gb Abm
Got to break it down, start again

[Terceira Parte]

Abm Gb Abm
"No, no, no, it won't happen to us
Abm Gb Abm
We've lived our lives, basically we've been good men"

[Refrão 2]

E Gb E
So stop talking of war 'cause you know we've heard it all before
E Gb Abm
Why don't you go out there and do something useful?
Abm Gb Abm
Oh, listen to the man in the liquor store
E Gb Abm
He yelling, "Anybody wanna drink before the war?"
E Gb Abm
Anybody wanna drink before the war?
E Gb Abm
Ah, anybody wanna drink before the war?"
