

Single Malt - BR 381

tom:
 Ebm (forma dos acordes no tom de Em )
 Afinação: Eb Ab Db Gb Bb Eb

Intro: Em C D EM Bm

C D E
 He left a trail of dust and a ghost on the ground
 C D
 B
 Knew that trouble was in every corner of his heart
 E G E
 The asphalt is my judge

E
 E C
 To run is the deep root

C D
 Br 381

Driving without looking, driving without looking for

E
 In 1972, the MG Sun scorched the tarp on the flatbed
 E
 Dad was chasing the legend of a roaring machine
 E
 Old highway, destination: The '54 Chevrolet
 E B
 The Catfish Mouth With his heart in his hands
 E
 And the smell of gasoline
 E
 Slept in a dirty ranch, woke up in the cold air
 C D
 The BR 381 chewed the tires thin and rough
 E
 The Catfish Mouth broke down, just smoke and a small repair
 C D
 And the fight broke out at the first saloon he had enough
 C D E
 He left a trail of dust and a ghost on the ground
 C D
 B
 Knew that trouble was in every corner of his heart
 E G E
 The asphalt is my judge
 C
 To run is the deep root

D
 Br 381
 Driving without looking, driving without looking for

C D E
 He left a trail of dust and a ghost on the ground
 C D
 B
 Knew that trouble was in every corner of his heart

E
 The night light flashed, a siren blinding his sight
 E
 Cops on his tail, asking for papers he didn't own
 E D
 C
 He saw the church stairs, didn't think twice and he drove
 E
 Rolled down the stone steps
 E C
 And came home safe and sound
 D
 By the morning light

[Solo Final]

Acordes

