F C G G F C G G
We all know sadness, and I feel your pain
F C G G Am F
Well everybody knows a little loneliness sometimes
C G G
'Cause we're all the same

F C G G F C G G
We all have sorrow, we all have shame
F C G G Am F
Everybody feels a bit of emptiness sometimes
C G G G
Now what you gonna do about that

F C G Am
There's a way to keep going , step by step
F C G Am
Try to fix what's been broken, brick by brick
F C G Am
While your life will keep coming, year after year
F C G Am
Drain the pain, tear by tear
F C G F C G
Drain away the pain, tear by tear

F C G G
Take a look around you
F C G G
Every face that you see
F C G Am F C
Well everybody gets a little paralyzed sometimes, the epidemic of our G G insanity

F C G Am
There's a way to keep going , step by step
F C G Am

And the mother she waits, 'Cause her teenager's late
Am C G G
Till the knock on the door, he says ma'am I am so sorry
Am C G G
And soldiers come home, one leg less than they'd gone with
Am C G G
We all walk around like there's just nothing wrong with it

F C G Am
The doctor he cries 'cause his last patient died
F C G G
Did I mention before he was a father of five
F C G Am
And the waitress is home, well she can't pay her loan
F C G G
She's lost everything - everything, she has no where to go
F C G Am
And the fat kid at school couldn't take anymore
F C G G
All the taunts and the names and the ugliest words
F C G Am
No one even stopped to notice, they went on with their day
F C G G
Till he pulled out a gun and blew himself away

F C G Am
There's a way to keep going , step by step
